DESCRIPTION

Digitmovies reintroduces this remarkable progressive avant-garde rock soundtrack based on Antonio Bido's 1977 cult movie Watch Me When I Kill. Music is written and performed by Trans Europa Express. For this CD, Digitmovies used the recording session's master stereo tapes. Its progressive style follows the band's origins. Trans Europa Express's lineup consisted of: Mauro Lusini (singer), Gianfranco Coletta (guitarist for Chetro & Co and for the earliest Banco del Mutuo Soccorso's formation), Glauco Borrelli (Albero Motore's bass player), Adriano Monteduro (guitarist who recorded his first album as singer and song writer together with Reale Accademia di Musica). The atrocious killings are highlighted by a theme full of mystery, where the electric bass prevails, creating those atmospheres typical of Dario Argento's movies, and by rhythmical rock themes. This score alternates delicate moments, magical and romantic, to a great variety of avant-garde tracks, very impactful both in the movie and out. A soundtrack for every archive devoted to noir genre.
