DESCRIPTION

Cinedelic Records presents a reissue of Fantasy (1973) by Sharon "Mhati" Chatam. Originally released in 1973 on RCA, this obscure library music title was produced by Maestro Gian Franco Reverberi using the pseudonym of Ninety as previously done before for other records like Psycheground Group Library on Lupus and the two Underground Set releases. The style is different from the aforementioned albums and is closest to the style of murky erotic cult soundtracks created for Renato Polselli as "Fire Shadows In The Sunset" features congas, groovy piano, spacey synthesizers and vocals. It contains many other amazing tracks like "I've Got An Idea" which includes insane fat drums, hypnotic bass, trippy piano and beautiful phased flutes, or the jazz groove "Closed In a Drugstore", the up-tempo funk "You're So Vain" (Carly Simon), the hip-hop drum on the cover versions of "Daniel" (Elton John, Bernie Taupin), "Sylvia's Mother" (Shel Silverstein) and "Vincent" (Don McLean), and the slow psychedelic cinematic lounge of "Quel Che Non Saprei Dirti Mai A Parole". Comes in glossy cover. Includes digital download code. Edition of 500.
