DESCRIPTION

Lisbon based keyboardist, João "Shela" Pereira, a frequent collaborator with many local bands (Paus, Rinding Pânico, LAmA, Linda Martini, and others) presents a new strangely haunting album, TV Songs. A compendium of spontaneous notes of ideas on the piano, to the rhythm of a television set in the background, these are scraps of expression in a form of dirty bucolic sketches aspiring to a hypothetical larger, washed, pristine composition. They live best as a hypothesis, an aspiration, in infinity.
