DESCRIPTION

Beautiful home-recorded solo jams from NYC underground music lifer recording as Dejing. Squeezing an array of sticky, soupy, heavily phased textures from a spartan setup (a guitar, keyboard and sampler), Dejing conjures a beguiling mix of simultaneously lumbering and buoyant rhythms and melodies, like transmissions from an oddly benevolent fever dream. It's a shapeshifting 40 minutes, at times sounding like a funereal Durutti Column outtake fed through a fried speaker at the bottom of a swimming pool, at others like a flickering, off-hours CRT TV broadcast of celestial melodies oscillating in a quiet storm of crackle and hiss. Limited vinyl pressing, don't sleep on this one.
