DESCRIPTION

Gladys Palmera introduces to you Loca Ilusion: Exciting Latin Sounds Compiled By Gladys Palmera, a unique compilation for its quality, selection, sound and taste. You will hardly find another compilation album like this one, where the best of Gladys Palmera's Collection is found and with the personal touch of Gladys herself, Alejandra Fierro Eleta. Here are different versions of well-known songs, surprising displays of vocal mastery, crazy jam sessions to immediately dance to, instrumentals full of virtuosity, gatherings of great music stars unnoticed until now and rare songs by artists who can only be found in Gladys Palmera's archive. Gladys Palmera herself has spent hours and hours searching, listening to, choosing, selecting and refining each piece of music for all of us to enjoy. These are recordings from the '60s and '70s made in different cities in Latin America and with styles ranging from the most traditional Antillean folklore to mixes and combinations with jazz, swing, twist, exotic and bossa nova. Loca Ilusion: Exciting Latin Sounds Compiled by Gladys Palmera is a production of Discos Gladys Palmera and a small sample of what is considered the best and biggest Afrolatin collection in the world. Featuring Orquesta Cimarron, Tongolote, Los Castro, Pepe Moreno y el Combo Los Bravos, Los Calvos, Chapuseaux y Damrion y su Conjunto, Eddie Cano & Jack Constanzo, Don Cunningham Quartet, Jesus Gomez y su Grupo, Tony Smith con Orquesta, Al Valdes y su Conjunto, and Moncho Leña y Los Ases del Ritmo.
