DESCRIPTION

Reissue, originally recorded in September 1975 at A&R Recording Studios in New York and released in 1977 on Baystate Japan. Classic jazz album by Charles Greenlee who worked extensively throughout his career with Archie Shepp who also participated in the sessions for John Coltrane's A Love Supreme in late 1964. Late in the 1940s he converted to Islam, changing his name to Harneefan Majeed; he continued to use Charles Greenlee for professional purposes, though he is sometimes credited with his Muslim last name as a sort of nickname. Great spiritual jazz album includes the classic vocal "He's Gone" and the classic track "Steam". Blue vinyl.
