DESCRIPTION

Heavy blues and psychedelic hard-rock by this US band formed by Lynn Carey (ex-C.K. Strong) and Neil Merryweather. Powerful cover versions and strong original songs dominated by the powerful vocals of Lynn Carey, explosive guitar riffs by Rick Gaxiola, keyboard wizard James Newton Howard, and the funky rhythm section of Neil Merryweather (bass) and Coffi Hall (drums). This is their debut album, originally released in 1972 on Artie Ripp's Family Productions label and housed in a striking (and polemic) gatefold die-cut sleeve showing Lynn Carey breastfeeding a lion cub. 24-bit remaster from the original master tapes with original artwork in gatefold die-cut sleeve. Includes insert with rare photos and memorabilia, as well as download card.
