DESCRIPTION

After briefly replacing Eric Clapton in John Mayall's Bluesbreakers, guitarist/bassist Geoff Krivit formed Doctor K's Blue Band with pianist Richard Kay and singer/harmonica player Mick Hasse, the lineup completed by bassist Harold Vickers, slide guitarist Roger Rolt, and future Steve Hillage drummer Eric Peachey. Their self-titled debut had top-notch renditions of blues classics such as "I Can't Lose," "Key To The Highway," and "Pet Cream Man," as well as spirited originals such as "Strobe Lemming's Lament" and the piano stomp "Crippled Clarence," but the album failed to break through. Grab a copy of this rarity to be blown away!
