DESCRIPTION

Parisian producer DoctorSoul is a longtime TSTD collaborator. These reworks of his have been floating around the internet for some time, the label finally give them an official release! The DJ/music producer/sound designer has collaborated with many artists and bands from diverse genres even in jazz, bringing production remixes for the likes of legendary Tania Maria, Jeff Cascaro, Mandoo & Interview, to name just a few! His own musical releases are deeply rooted in disco and funk territory with a modern sonic production touch that can grab attention from the younger generation, as well as from the elder who like to be reminded of the '80s dancefloor culture. Since 2018 he has been hosting a monthly show on RapTz Radio and on the late night dream.com while doing DJ sets for The House Theory Radio Show, The Midnight Riot Radio, and Disko Knights. DoctorSoul's tracks are released on the London based Midnight Riot record label, the Berlin based Too Slow To Disco record label and have reached many times the top places in worldwide disco charts.
