DESCRIPTION

One-sided LP with booklet in black plastic bag. Edition of 199. This limited-edition vinyl reissue of Atrax Morgue's Mechanic Asphyxia offers a haunting exploration of sound, originally released as a double tape on Slaughter Productions. This striking one-sided LP is strictly limited to just 199 copies and features four chilling tracks: "Plastic Bags," "What I Have (Nothing)," "Mechanism Of D.," and "Playing With My Corpse." Each track showcases the raw, improvised essence of Marco Corbelli's work, recorded between March 13-14, 1997, in Sassuolo, Italy. With its haunting vocalizations and abrasive soundscapes, the album invites listeners into a world that seamlessly blends the grotesque with the profound. The album comes housed in a distinctive handmade art package, uniquely wrapped in a plastic trash bag, encapsulating the thematic elements of the work. Accompanying the vinyl is an amazing booklet, providing insights into the maniac journey of Mechanic Asphyxia album. This special reissue has been meticulously mastered by Andrea Marutti in 2024, ensuring that the aural integrity of Corbelli's experimental soundscapes is preserved for a new generation of listeners. Don't miss your chance to own this essential piece of industrial and power electronics history and immerse yourself in the dark and chilling aesthetic of Atrax Morgue!
