DESCRIPTION

Z Records presents Vol. 3 in its 90's House & Garage compilation series, this time presented by Jeremy Underground, a man who should need no introduction when it comes to all things House & Garage. Jeremy is a passionate record collector, DJ, music lover whose collection and knowledge surpasses his years of collecting and he's made it his personal mission to bring the warm vibes of this sound back and showcase the spirit of this golden era in house. This is his third ever house music compilation and much like the previous two in this series, the compiler digs deep into his collection to select tracks that haven't been re-released digitally and, in one case, never released at all! Meaning a lot of the tracks included here are being digitized for the very first time. Sourcing material from the original DAT tapes of the artists or in some cases painstakingly transferred from vinyl, cleaned and treated to the highest professional standards of today. Split over two parts on gatefold double 12" vinyl (ZEDD 061LP and ZEDD 061X-LP) and double CD for the first time, this is a very carefully curated album, showcasing a deep love and understanding for the sound represented here, from what is a definitive decade for House & Garage. Featuring tracks and remixes from the likes of Kerri Chandler, Murk, 95 North, and more.
